MISSING PERSON – TASHINA GENERAL

The Six Nations Police Service continues to investigate the disappearance of Tashina Cheyenne Vaughn General (D.O.B.: 02 OCT 1986).

On January 23, 2008, Tashina's mother called to advise police that her 21 year old daughter had not returned home overnight. Police asked for additional information required to consider the young adult missing.

In the weeks that followed police were aware of information that Tashina had been seen in the community.

On March 16, 2008, the grandmother called police to express concern that her granddaughter had not had any contact with the family since January 22nd. Investigators began following up with known associates, friends and family of the young woman.

Law enforcement agencies in Ontario, Quebec, New York State and Canadian and US Border Patrols have been enlisted in the effort to determine her whereabouts.

Investigators have determined that Tashina was last seen by an acquaintance, Kent Squire Hill. Mr. Hill reported dropping Tashina off in the vicinity of the Village Pizza Shop, in the village of Ohsweken, on Tuesday, January 22, 2008 at 12:00 noon.

Tashina is described as a native female, 21 years old, 5'7", 150 lbs, brown eyes with long brown hair. She wears black rimmed glasses, and has a "T" shaped scar on her left brow. She is 4 – 5 months pregnant. She was believed to have been wearing a teal coloured jacket.

With the assistance of the Ontario Provincial Police, the Six Nations Police Service has searched the area near and around Tashina's residence, using police dogs and a helicopter.

To date, all efforts to locate Tashina General have been unsuccessful.

The Police Service echo the concerns of the family and ask that anyone that has any information pertaining to Tashina, to contact the Six Nations Police Service at 519-445-4191.

At this point, the family and the community just want to know that she is alright.

The Six Nations Crisis Line is providing a dedicated line staffed 24 hours a day, to calls with information about Tashina. The phone number is 519-445-2204 or 1-866-445-2204.
